March 2019

Learning Activities
The four year old classes are continuing to work on patterns and will do some estimating and writing stories. The letters this month are R, S, T, U and the number is 8. Three year old classes are counting to 10 and recognizing their names and listening to stories.

Fall tuition deposit $50 is due by the end of the month to

Summer

Birthdays

Children who have a summer birthday miss the excitement of being the birthday person at preschool. Perhaps you could select a school day to celebrate your child's

March Highlights

Field Trip

All classes are welcome to "Jack and the Beanstalk" on Thursday, March 7th. Please arrive at 10am and wear your yellow preschool shirt. If you have any questions, let us know.

Building Theme:

We plan to study the different types of buildings and construction of the buildings and how they are made.

Bible Stories This month we will hear the stories of how Paul obeys God, a boy who helps Paul, Safe in the shipwreck, Mary anoints Jesus, Jesus enters Jerusalem, the Empty Tomb, the Road to Emmaus and how Jesus rose again!

Thank you to Cathy Brouwer who came in to talk about her job as a dental hygienist and teach our kids about dental care. We got to learn all about our bodies and what is inside of them.
