

Palos Heights Christian Reformed Church

Position Description for: Pastor of Preaching and Faith Formation

Purpose: The Pastor of Preaching and Faith Formation will have primary responsibility for facilitating the development and coordination of spiritual formation through education, leadership development, and support of student and young adult faith formation ministries.

Responsibilities: In addition to preaching and leading worship approximately 25 – 50% of the time (including exploring alternative worship opportunities), this role will provide leadership and vision for Next Generation Ministries which will include but not be limited to:

- Practice incarnational ministry among students and young adults.
- Ensure that student and young adult ministries are fully integrated into the life of the church.
- Lead middle school and high school youth groups and oversee other student and young adult ministry programming (including college and career age), providing direction and coordination of volunteers for such programming.
- Develop connections and relationships with local high schools, home school programs, and colleges.
- Provide regular preparation opportunities for Profession of Faith.
- Identify and facilitate regular service and mission opportunities including opportunities specifically for students and young adults.
- Working cross functionally with other staff, work to identify, recruit, and develop student ministry volunteers.
- Participate in Council and Ministry Leadership Teams
- Other responsibilities as assigned

Requirements:

- Must be ordained, or eligible for ordination, in the CRCNA
- Is able to inspire others, including children, to use their talents within the church and their community
- Is passionate about following the Word of God
- Willing to follow the lead of the Holy Spirit

Reports to: PHCRC Elders